

This Letter is a confession on my behalf to clear my conscience in regards to the Jaugun uprising that took place on 2/1/17. I regret waiting this late to confess because my actions have resulted in the unjustly indictment of 13 of my codefendants. I don't no longer live with the guilt and 13 others shouldn't suffer behind my selfishness. Royal Downs was my celly and he and I along with 5 others planned the uprising. Royal Downs used to always tell me how he wanted to go back to Maryland and how fed up he was with the way prisoners were being treated. He's been planning the takeover for a few months and I became part of the plan since he trusted me. His exact words were "the administration already think I'm the boss in here so I/we mind as well show them what's up." I allowed him to manipulate me with revolutionary literature and when the time came I acted. On the morning of 2/1/17 after Sgt. Floyd called yard, myself and 5 others stormed the bldg. while hiding in the oncoming rush of others (inmates) entering the building. This first CO I came into contact with was Floyd. I pulled out my shank and stabbed him in the arm while others went and attacked the other CO's. After stabbing Floyd multiple times in different places I quickly pocketed up a mop ring and when he started to retreat I hit him in the head with it. When he fell others jumped on him and began assaulting him as well. While swinging the Mop ring I believe I may have unknowingly hit some light skinned guy in his arm or hand because I could see it bleeding while he was walking away. Once all 3 CO's were subdued we put them in closets, put the monitor on B-tier and started negotiating. In the middle of all of this, I saw Corey Smith trying to sneak into the basement with the maintenance workers. Since the maintenance workers didn't help him he then walked outside. After that I went outside while still masked up and told everyone to come inside. Afterwards I went to my celly Royal Downs and told him everyone (CO's) were secured and that's when he said "we have to make an example out of one of them." It just so happened to be Floyd that day. Throughout the rest of the day I along with 2 others continued to assault Floyd. After a while he just stopped moving so we put him in the Sgt's office and I threw burnt objects on top of him. I won't name the other 5 individuals who helped me throughout the day because I won't be the cause of the true perpetrators being indicted. I know for a fact that Luis Sierra, Obadiah Miller, John Brand, Alejandro Buitres, Alejandro Rodriguez-Perez, Pedro Chavez, Kevin Berry, Jany Mathis, Robert Hernandez, Corey Smith, Jonathan Rodriguez, Lawrence Michael, and Roman Shankares had nothing to do with the plot, conspiracy, kidnapping, assault and murder on 2/1/17 at J.T.V.C. I'm sorry for my actions.
